

Student Nurse Work package for stroke.

Please take time to answer the following questions regarding stroke patients input and care, using the information booklet provided and list of useful references to provide your answers, this will be discussed with you on your final interview.

What different types of stroke are there?

What are the common side effects/ complications of stroke?

What are the different types of stroke medications that may be commonly used and what are common side effects of these medications?

What lobes of the brain can cause different symptoms in stroke patients?

What advice and common guidance may a patient ask after suffering a stroke?

What is the role of occupational therapist?

What is the role of a physiotherapist?

What is the role of a speech and language therapist?

What is the role of a psychologist?

What is the role of a stroke specialist nurse?

What are the main areas that need to be considered when discharging a stroke patient?

How do we ensure a safe effective discharge?

What is the benefit of doing home visit or discharge home visit with patients?

What equipment aids may a patient require to ensure they are safe at home?

What is the role of reablement carers?

What ongoing support have you noticed patients can access after there stroke?

Why is it important to bench mark stroke services?

Please complete the STARS online, Stroke core competencies- www.strokecorecompetencies.org select STARS option